CAREER

Dedicated and compassionate individual seeking a position as a Carer to provide quality care and support to individuals in need. Leveraging my volunteer experience in caregiving and community service at the Catholic University to make a positive impact on the lives of those I serve.

I have completed 100 hours of volunteerism as a requirement for graduation. This involved providing compassionate care to sick individuals in our local communities, offering physical and emotional support.

I also assisted with daily living activities, medication reminders, and mobility assistance. This involved actively listening to patients' concerns and engaged in conversations to improve their emotional well-being.

These activities were always done in a team-based setting in collaboration with other healthcare professionals to ensure the highest level of care given we all had to maintained detailed records of care provided and observed any changes in the patient's condition.

Right now, I am looking to build on this explore further opportunities to continuously make a difference.
